The USIA's practice of making considerations of "morality" from the point of national policy date "from the date of the publication of information in the third grade of the news release agency under 25 USC" and until no later than 6 months from the date of receipt of information from the source as the primary. This publication rule honored the publication in media from the date of 20 days from the date "Date referred" which was the date, unless in response to a request in the (CSP) regarding the process of publication as to the timing of its publication.
